Press Release

While the official volunteer reception center is closing at the end of the day on Sunday we realize that there is still a need for assistance across the county. The Barron County Sheriff's Department and Barron County Health & Human Services will still continue to be the lead agencies if our recovery efforts and we can be reached at:

Sheriff Dept- 715-537-3106 or 911 for any property or traffic safety concerns

Health & Human Services will continue to monitor 211 to provide assistance to victims
For specific needs-Economic Support, Trauma Services or others requests please call 715-537-5691

In addition, the Chetek Chamber of Commerce has been providing assistance to this disaster with volunteer resources to residents in need utilizing the Resort Owner's Association information booth as a headquarters.

This team will continue these services during the week. Volunteers are needed for physical labor and supporting roles in clerical, meal preparation, delivery & traffic.

The need for assistance remains high. Volunteers are encouraged to follow the updated post at www.explorechetek.com and use the form there to register. Residents can also use this form to submit a request for aid and one of our team volunteers will follow up. You may also call 715-924-4440.

As this recovery continues we want to not only thank the hundreds of volunteers, businesses and organizations that assisted but the county staff that worked day and night on this disaster for the citizens of Barron County.
